Artist Reception: May 6, from 2 to 4 PM

21 ASSOCIATE ARTISTS EXHIBIT A MYriad OF ART FORMS

Lowell, MA – The Brush Art Gallery and Studios provides display space for artists in its attractive, hallway gallery. We are open 5 to 6 days per week and host many exhibition openings and events, thereby ensuring maximum exposure. We offer reasonable rents and require a small commission for handling sales.

This exhibit gives the associate artists a chance to display items that may not fit their wall spaces. Artists produce work including: paintings, drawings, photography, jewelry, glass, sculpture, quilts, fiber art, and handwoven items.

The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is located in the Lowell National Historical Park across the courtyard from the Visitor Center. This dynamic and captivating place was originally founded by the Lowell Historic Preservation Commission, U.S. Department of the Interior. The Brush presents museum quality exhibitions, educational programs, and has collaborated with many other nonprofit groups. Artists occupy studio spaces to interact with and educate the public on a weekly basis. Studio artists produce paintings, illustration, photography, jewelry, sculpture, ceramics, quilts, and handwoven items. Associate artists display work in the common area. The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization. The Brush is supported by the Lowell National Historical Park.
