Regional Print Group to Exhibit in Lowell

Rolling River Printmakers of New England Juried Exhibit

Lowell, MA -- "OFF THE PLATE," is a group exhibit highlighting traditional printmaking methods of monotype and monoprint including: woodblock, linocut, etching, screen print, and more. Juried by the Rolling River Printmakers of New England, work is 100% plate pulled--no post production or hand coloring.

The Rolling River Printmakers of New England mission is to is to foster greater public awareness and knowledge of the history and development of original plate type printmaking via our exhibitions and demonstration series. RRP encourages support to living/working artists by coordinating public venues to increase exhibiting opportunities enhancing engagement between printmaker and the public. RRP promotes excellence in printmaking for both beginner and professional printmakers across New England.

The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is located in the Lowell National Historical Park across the courtyard from the Visitor Center. This dynamic and captivating place was originally founded by the Lowell Historic Preservation Commission, U.S. Department of the Interior. The Brush presents museum quality exhibitions, educational programs, and has collaborated with many other nonprofit groups. Artists occupy studio spaces to interact with and educate the public on a weekly basis. Studio artists produce paintings, illustration, photography, jewelry, sculpture, ceramics, quilts, and crocheted items. Associate artists display work in the common area. The Brush Art Gallery and Studios is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization. The Brush is supported by the Lowell National Historical Park.
